Thunderclap, of the Rancocas Stable, won the Potomac Handieap at aqueduct yesterday afternoon. The Potomac was one of the cheapest classic which should go down in turf annals among the most illustrious. race, lost much of its interest when that will provide the fans with the real thing.

Because of the success which is following the Rancocas Stable, Mad

Hatter is likely to be highly favored, but under 126 pounds he is no copper-riveted cinch. R. T. Wilson's Pillory, that chased Mad Hatter in the two-mile Jockey Club Gold Cup, has a more favorable pull in the weights this time. Captain Alcock and Devastation, at 109 and 104, respectively, both have better than an outside look-in. Hephaistos and Sedgefield are in with the proberbial postage stamps on their backs, while Prince James,

For this six-year-old gelded son of @ Vulcain-Bandana proved himself just bout the best handicap horse in training by what he did in this so-called festure, which added only the negligible sum of $947.83 to his stable's sarnings. Thunderclap, under the crashing impost of 133 pounds, galoped that mile and a sixteenth in the rattling time of 1:43 3-5. All the way through the long Aqueduct stretch he raced into the teeth of a fair blow.
The wind for him was unfavorable, as Earl Sande, eleverest of all our riders, lay away off the early pace and did not make his bid till straightened for the run home.
Sande did not call on his mount until it appeared probable that Charles A. Stoneham's Flannel Shirt might give Little Chief, the other half of the Rancoss entry, a real rumble for the Ran-coss entry, a real rumble for the race. Then Thunderclap charged down on the outside, rhythmically, but irresistibly, to win by more than a length in sen-

Near Track Record Time

Thunderclap ran the mile and a sixteenth within three-fifths of a second of the track record, which was set a year ago last June by Mad Hatter, also of the Rancocas Stable. On that occasion Mad Hatter, which had no wind a buck, carried one pound less than to buck, carried one pound less than yesterday's victor. Had Little Chief, the running mate of Thunderclap, been able to trim Flannel Shirt handily it is probable Sande never would have made its sensational charge through the stretch. It did appear as if this premier jockey left it all to Little Chief till the issue became a tossum in the

Osprey's Sensational Race

August Belmont, chairman of the lockey Club, saw Osprey, a good Fair Play colt, win the closing dash, at five furlongs, for maiden two-year-olds. Here is a thoroughbred well worthy of being a stable mate of Messenger. He calloped the five furlongs in the face of a blow in the astounding time of 1.582-5, and was never out of a pull. Osprey, the Rancocas Stable's Rigel and J. E. Widener's Purity, which finished in the order named, were all having played, and a furlong from home were practically on even terms. Purity, jammed between the others, had to take back. This one might have beaten Rigel, but nothing had a chance to stop Osprey after the colt broke forwardly.

Another juicy melon cut was the Alapa Farm's Oil Man in the second tital, at three-quarters of a mile. Backed from 4 to 1 to 5 to 2, Oil Man displayed a world of speed and raced the Greentree Stable's Pirate Gold into submission. G. A. Cochran's June Grass, also havily played, ran a very sale race and did not get into the man. Osprey's Sensational Race in the third race, at a mile, Sande made a show of a field of five with had Fisher's Violinist, a heavily larged favorite. He had only to run the faint-hearted Ralco, after COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 22 (By The Associated Press).-Favorites were generally successful at to-day's Grand only three horses turned for the money. Margaret Dillon, winner of the race in straight heats, apparently outclassed the other two. On account of lameness, Roger C. was drawn after the second heat.

Ess H. Pointer won the 2:10 race, finishing first in the first two heats, losing the third to Gamey the Great. First quarters in this event were paced in fast time-29 12, 29 1-4 and 29 1-2 seconds.

The 2:17 trot brought out the biggest field of any race to-day, eleven gest field of any race to-day, eleven starters facing the wire. The first heat was merely a procession, Chop Suey winning handily. She was nosed out by Peter Will Tell in the second mile, but came back strong in the third and deciding heat.

The best race of the afternoon and the only one to furnish an upset was the 2:07 trot. McGregor the Great, a prohibitive favorite won the first heat the 2:07 trot. McGregor the Great, a prohibitive favorite, won the first heat, but ran into trouble in the second when he was outtrotted in the stretch by Main Lick, the heat winner. In the third mile, King Watts finished just a nose ahead of Carmileta Hall and Main Lick, with McGregor the Great far heek for the fourth mile, which was won by McGregor the Great, closely pressed by King Watts. The results follow:

apparently believes that a negro heavyweight contest can be staged here that will provide the fans with the real thing.

This may cause some dismay among the aforementioned rans, but Tex Rickard and Frank Flournoy, who are behind this new vonture, feel sure of their ground and are going ahead. Both declare that this next all-colored scran will not be a repetition of the Wills-Jackson burleague.

All this leads up to the announcement that a new opponent has been found for Harry Wills, the negro heavyweight champion, who is somewhere for the world's title. Harry's next victim is to be Clem Johnson, who claims the rather spaclous continent of South America as his home town. Clem is said to be the goods. Leo P. Flynn, his said to be the goods. Leo P. In the face of the disgruntled uproar that followed the Wills-Jackson affair it was not believed that any club would have the temerity to go prowling through the sticks for another Wills victim.

However, Rickard and Flournoy appeared yesterday to be so impressed with Clem Johnson's past that neither evinced any qualms of conscience in inviting the public to come and see him take a pasting from the colored champion. In fact, both men seem to believe that Clem will give Harry quite an interesting tussle.
